“ I've known Buck ever sense I was a teenager, but I have really got to know him over the past 3 years when I met his daughter Christine. Ive learned from him that you don't have to be blood to be considered family! Listening to stories from his family and his daughter Christine about the type of man was, from taking Christine on his first date with her mom. To helping someone with thier car without question. I remember the day I went to his work to ask for his blessing to ask for Christines hand. I was extremely nervous. He said sure and welcome to the family, but go talk to her mom first.lol. Buck you will be extremely missed! Thank you for excepting me into this wonderful family. I only hope that I turn out to be half the man I've learned you to be!

“ One of my earliest memories of Uncle Buck was growing up when he would tell me "Get out of here I hate kids" Well that apparently didn't work out for him because kids and grandkids is exactly what he got by the bus full! He also told me "knock it off before I put this size 10 shoe so far up your butt you will need a doctor to get it out" this saying also didn't work to long after I was 6 foot and wore a size 12. I learned just about everything I know about working on vehicles from him. He leaves behind a strong legacy of love and compassion for family. I only hope to leave half the legacy he has to my kids. - Justin

“Dad, I will always remember all the fun times we danced around the house to "I Can't Dance" and the "Train". Those times I will keep with me forever and pass those down to my own children. I will always be there number one fan, like you have always been to me. Watch over Peyton for me. Help her with the many hard decisions she will face in her life. Also, be there to guide mom in this tough road she is about to take. Make sure you give her all of your strength. Watch over her and when things begin to be too hard, make sure she knows you with her every step of the way. You helped me become the woman I am today and I hope you are proud. I love you so much. "Till I see you again, Fly, Free Bird."

“I will never forget how you used to yell at me and Bobie for making fun of other people and to know that Lex and Andrew do the same makes me smile a little, I will also never forget how you treated me like family... I hope you know how truly thankful to you I am for taking care of my baby all these years...for all the bad things that life brought her way, you were always there for her...almost every time I called her she was watching a movie with you and I know she'll cherish those memories for ever...Please continue to watch over her!! Rest in Paradise Buck Love Always, Tracey
