“ It's hard to express how much Pastor Bob influenced my life in his 10 years as our pastor. He brought a vitality and new passion to the church, and was responsible for our son going into the ministry for our try. We will never forget Bob or Betty; their love for one another and for the church; his love of music and especially for his Savior. I will never forget his closing words at funerals - imagine stepping onto shore and breathing air that's celestial, reaching out for a hand and realizing it's Jesus. Today Bob is standing tall and walking with Jesus!

“ So sorry to hear of Pastor Bob's passing. We were so fortunate to have him as our pastor at Woodland United Methodist Church for 10 years. We learned so much from him through his ministry in singing and his messages. Now Mrs. Betty and Pastor Bob are together. I am sure he was met at heavens gate with a response of well done thy good and faithful servent, welcome home!!
