

Rockwell "Butch" Farrell

November 18, 2025

Rockwell "Butch" Farrell, 80, passed peacefully on November 18, 2025 after a long battle with Alzheimer's. Born in Bloomsburg, PA, he was a near lifetime resident of Elmer, NJ. A proud Navy veteran, Butch was a skilled precision machinist and the owner of S&W Machine Shop. Later in life, he embraced his artistic side through primitive woodworking and created much of the work sold at Curiosity Corner in Elmer until he could no longer do so.

He was predeceased by his wife of 38 years, Sharleen. He is survived by his stepchildren, Scott Nelson and Kelli Nelson; grandchildren Alicia Smith (Dan), Lauren Whidby (Justin), and Grace Nelson; and great-grandchildren Alexis, Delaney, Kendall, and Jett.

A private family graveside service will be held.

Tribute Wall

PM

“ I went to work for Mr Farrell at S&W Machine in 1983. He was a very nice man. I wasn't there long. He would always say hi or wave when I saw him after that. God bless and watch over him and his family. Penny Montgomery.

Penny Montgomery - November 25, 2025 at 12:08 AM

DW

“ I met Butch sometime in the 1980's. He was always easy to speak with. He had this special calm and collected way about him. Rest in peace my friend

David Wojciechowski - November 19, 2025 at 06:43 PM