

Rose Anne Aspen

February 4, 2016

Rose (DiGregorio) Aspen, (The Flower Lady), age 94, of Bellmawr, NJ, passed away on February 4, 2016 at Inspira Hospital, Woodbury. Born in Penns Grove, NJ, Rose was the daughter of Dominic and Carmela DiBlasio DiGregorio. She is survived by her son, Glenn Showalter of Seattle, Washington, as well as her brothers, Alvin and Sam (Rita), and sister-in-law, Grace DiGregorio. Rose was also a loving aunt to many nieces and nephews, great, and great-great nieces and nephews. Her God-daughter, Gwen McKenney, whom she adored, also survives her, as well as her many, many friends. In addition to her parents, Rose was predeceased by her husband, Martin Aspen, as well as her siblings, Hilda Parente, Santa DiGregorio, Elvira Parlapiano, and John DiGregorio.

Rose was a well-respected floral designer who worked for over thirty years for Sansone & Company Florist in Bellmawr; following her "retirement" she served her loyal clients from her home until a few months before her death. Nothing was too much work if it meant giving delight to others.

Family and friends (who were the center of Rose's life) may pay their respects to this remarkable woman on Saturday, April 2, beginning at 8:30, in her beloved Parish Church – which she lovingly decorated for 64 years – St. Joachim Parish, Annunciation Church, 601 W. Browning Rd., Bellmawr; and to participate in her Funeral Mass at 10 AM. Following Mass, Rose will be laid to rest with Marty at Lawnside Cemetery in Woodstown. Rose loved flowers, and they are certainly most welcome as a tribute. Those who wish, however, may make a contribution to St. Joachim Parish for a memorial in her name. www.aldamsfuneralhome.org

“ *Many years when I was a single mother with four young children, Rose and Marty became their church grandparents. They were so kind and generous giving them a dollar after Mass. Visiting their home was like a story book come to life. Everything was perfect and Rose's delicious cookies were always available. She was the ultimate Lady in all she did, a beautiful example of womanhood. An honor to be in her loving circle.
Rest in peace lovely Rose with your loving Marty.
God Bless You
