“ To the family of Rose Solano,
Rose was such a lovely person and friend. When I would come through the doors of the Edward Dorn Senior Center, her smiling face would be the first one I would see. When health finally prevented her from coming every Wednesday, I missed seeing that smiling face and the words " how about them Phillies and Jimmy Rollins"? Of those of us who remembered her, she will be missed. May she rest in peace. I will keep her family in my prayers and May God continue to bless you. With my heartfelt condolences. Love,
DIANE JOHNS.

“ I regret never meeting Rose but her grandson Mark Shields always shared his stories of his grandmother ‘Rocky’ who he loved with all of his heart. I only knew her as a sweet lady that would send Mark back to work with chocolates for me. My sincere condolences to Rose’s family and friends.

So sorry Phyllis and family. Your mom was the sweetest 💕 we chatted when she came to Saturday night mass at Corpus Christi. I often thought about her. What a beautiful life she had making it to 101 yrs old how amazing that is. May she RIP 🙏
