September 18, 2012

Roselyn Paula Marrazzi-Lieggi, 60, of Carney's Point passed away on September 18, 2012 after battling an illness. The daughter of Louis and Mary Marrazzi, Roselyn was a graduate of the William Tenet High School in Warminster, Pa. She dedicated her life to providing loving guidance and support while raising her children as a 'stay at home' mom, and in later years fulfilled her desire to help women in need, by performing the role of Team Captain for the Marlton Domestic Violence Response Team. She loved looking after her grandchildren. She enjoyed gardening, dancing and taking trips to the shore, especially Brigantine, but she will forever be remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, daughter and sister. Roselyn is survived by her mother; her loving husband of six years, John Lieggi of Pennsville; her son, Kurtis Overdorf of Pennsylvania; her daughters, Maria Overdorf and Ashley Torres of Pennsville and Heather Lieggi of Virginia; her grandchildren, Angelina and Antonio Torres; her brother, Louis Marrazzi of Pennsylvania; and her sisters, Carol Morrison of Cherry Hill and Mary Lou Gore of Philadelphia. She was predeceased by her father. A memorial service to celebrate Roselyn's life will be held on Saturday, September 29, 2012 at the Adams Funeral Home, 18 East Maple Avenue, Penns Grove, NJ 08069 with visitation from 1 to 2 PM and the service following at 2 PM. “Maria, I'm so sorry you have to go through this. You're a very strong woman and your mom would be so proud of you for the way you stayed by her, helped her and acted in her best interest. Your loyalty and generous heart are something she must have treasured greatly. I didn't get the chance to see her often, but I will always remember how quick she was to smile and how friendly she was to me. She will be missed.”
