

Rosemary K. Horner

August 7, 2017

Rosemary K. Horner, 89, of Pittsgrove passed away on August 7, 2017. Born in Willow Grove, NJ, Mrs. Horner was the daughter of the late Harry, Sr. & Martha (Boucher) Kholer. For many years she had worked as a hairdresser for Fontana Hair Fashions, which was then, renamed Dawn Roberts. Mrs. Horner was an accomplished seamstress, enjoyed taking the time to decorate and then redecorate her home, she loved the smell and the beauty of a flower and she would spend hours watching birds, especially the humming birds as they fed at the feeder next to the kitchen window. Like most, her family was extremely important to her but even more important was her relationship with her God. Everyday she spent time reading her bible and praying in order to develop and strengthen this relationship. Rosemary always felt that this was the greatest gift that she could give her family.

Her husband of forty-one years, Walter, two daughters, Candace Irizarry and her husband George and Leah (Cottrell) Kuykendall, five grandchildren, James Ritter, Joshua Ritter, Devin Tusso, Mathew Sadowski and Rosemary Sadowski, eight great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews survive her. In addition to her parents, her son, Arthur Curley and five siblings, Harry Kholer, Jr., Marcelle Russell, Martha Carolyn Vandepol, Phyllis Donnelly and Adrienne Modelle predeceased her.

“ Rose was like a mother figure to me in church. We go way back to the dance studio at Victory. Several years at Abundant Life where she ministered to me and my wife Robin. Then back to Victory. I always greeted her with a holy kiss. She will be greatly missed..
