“ From the day I met Roswitha I knew we were meant to be forever friends. More like an older sister, caring, wiser, loving sister. My heart is saddened to hear of her passing. I will truly miss her beautiful smile and the sound of her laughter. She will forever have a place in my heart and never forgotten. My thoughts and prayers to her family.

“ Roswitha was one of the warmest people anyone could ever meet. I met her, as many others have shared, at the Christiana Costco in DE. She always greeted me with a huge smile, a joke or laughter and we always shared a hug. She is one of the MOST Special Souls I have been blessed to touch hearts with. I will always remember and carry her smile and her spirit in my heart. She will be missed from this physical existence, but always close in heart. My life is richer for having had the blessing of knowing her, even if just for the time we touched hearts at Costco. Thank You My Roswitha~~~~~

Always,

Pat
