

Ruth Dodge

November 13, 2011

Ruth H. Dodge, 93, passed away on November 13, 2011. Born in Millville, Mrs. Dodge was the daughter of Francis and Anna R. Harvey. She was a long time resident of Elmer prior to moving to Vineland. A bowling fan and competitor, she often played in three to four leagues a week. A gifted seamstress, Mrs. Dodge was very well known and called upon for her gift. She loved driving down to Atlantic City, playing bingo and was a past member of the Elmer Fire Department's Ladies Auxiliary.

She is survived by her nephew, Charles Feltes and his wife Carolyn and her niece, Lorraine Boyce both of Indiana; two step-daughters, Marianne Bostwick and her husband Herbert of Pittsgrove and Carolyn Seibert and her husband Raymond of Monroeville as well as many other family members. Her husband Herbert C. Dodge, a brother Frank Harvey and a sister Louella Feltes predeceased her.

Services are private and at the convenience of the family. www.adamsfuneralhome.com.
