“ *Dear Griscom family,
I am sorry for the loss of your mother. Ruth was a guiding light. She was always sharing and always caring. I have very fond memories of her during the Amway business days. She would lead by her example - work hard and then play hard. Delayed gratification was her belief. And helping people succeed was her passion. She will be truly missed here on earth although she is in Heaven with Jesus, Farmer and other family members.
With hugs,
Shawna*

“ *Sharing time with Ruth and Farmer in their cottage and then with just Ruth in Assisted Living at Friends Village has provided me with wonderful memories, laughs, sharing of common interests, warm friendship. What a remarkable person. Rest in Peace, Ruth.
