

Ruth Jackson Jenkins

December 8, 2011

On December 8, 2011, Ruth Jackson Jenkins, 85, peacefully went home to be with her Lord and Savior. Born in Worcester, MA, Mrs. Jenkins was the daughter of the late Rev. Carmault & Mabel Jackson. She retired from Cardiology Associates in Elmer after many years of service and was a long-time member of the First Baptist Church of Elmer. She was also a member of the Christian Women's Club of South Jersey and the American Association of Medical Assistants.

Ruth's unflinching devotion to the Lord gave her a servant's heart. Always ready to help anyone in need, she also served as Sunday School teacher, Vacation Bible School teacher, and Church Clerk. An avid reader, she was always teaching herself and happily sharing her love with others.

She is survived by her daughters, Donna Cook and her husband Andy of Sewell, Eileen Hill and her husband Kenneth of Pittsgrove, her son Walter "Tim" Jenkins and his wife Susan of Jeffersonville, PA, her brother, Rev. Charles Jackson of NJ, a sister, Esther Jackson of Pennsville, five grandchildren, Tracy McWhorter, KJ Hill, Gregory Hill, Joshua Hathaway and Kevin Jenkins as well as thirteen great grandchildren. Her husband Walter and a brother Dr. Carmault Jackson, Jr. predeceased her.

A service will be held on Tuesday, December 13, 2011 at 11am at the First Baptist Church of Elmer, 209 Broad St., Elmer, NJ 08318. The viewing for Mrs. Jenkins will also be held at the church prior to the service starting at 10am. Interment will take place at Chestnut Grove Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Elmer Public Library. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ Ruth will forever be one of my forever friends, in my memories and life eternally! She will be missed, for sure, but has left a lasting legacy for all who knew her. I look forward to seeing her again in glory! I will be praying for all of you, her family and friends, and wish I could be there to give you all a hug and hear the testimonies of her life in yours.

Sincerely, Grace Harvey Lewis
