“ Mom Mom Curiale, you were always so nice to me and made me feel like a welcome part of the family. I've told Lauren multiple times that you were like a second grandmom. You were badass, smart, but what I loved about you most is how you would observe. While people did stuff or talked you observed and I think that's what made me like you more because you soaked everything in. I think you really knew people for what they were and that's something you don't find these days. You were so strong, I never seen you once cry, only choke up spreading your husbands ashes which most people would be wailing, you kept your composure because you knew he wouldn't want you to be hurting. I know I'm rambling but I did miss the last chance to see you last Saturday night at their house and now it makes me want to cry. Lauren and I were just going to start taking you out again on Wednesdays to the park, go to Cracker Barrel, or just come over to talk to you and then this happens almost out of nowhere... makes you really think. I love you and now your probably hugging your husband in heaven, drinking Coors light watching down on baby Emmy and Sheryl. You were an amazing mother, even more amazing grandmother, and perfect great grandmother. You're an angel, and now your amongst them yourself as one. Sleep in Peace Mama Mac ❤️

“ So very sorry to hear. Ruth Ann was such a sweet lady, we had many good times together thru the years with Moose functions. She was the backbone of many Moose functions and worked tirelessly and lovingly for the Organization. May your memories of the good times sustain you during these difficult times.
