

Sandra Adams

May 7, 2012

Sandra VanCleef Adams, age 72 of Elmer, passed away peacefully at home with her family by her side, Monday May 7th, 2012.

Born in Syracuse NY to Duncan Kennedy VanCleef Jr. and Jane MacRae VanCleef, she was the oldest of five children. She attended Carle Place High School while living in Westbury, NY. After high school she attended Gettysburg College, where she met her future husband.

She was a teller for many years at the First National Bank of Elmer, and later at the Elmer branch of Pennsville National Bank until her retirement. She was an avid reader, devouring books in an almost literal sense. A high point in her life was the annual pilgrimage to Bar Harbor, Maine. Beginning in 1986, she and her husband visited every year in September and stayed at the Bar Harbor Motel, where the Colliers always made them feel more than welcome. They stayed in the same Room 120 during every visit which became a home away from home. Over the years they became friendly with many other local citizens.

She is survived by her devoted husband of 52 years, Floyd C. Adams, Jr., of Elmer, and three children, Floyd C. Adams III and wife Evelyn of Elmer, Nikki Adams of Monroeville, and Edward Adams and wife Debbie of Corryton TN. Also surviving are five grandchildren, Lindsay Krevetski, Claire Adams, Jonathan and Melissa Adams, and Samantha Adams. She leaves two brothers, Duncan VanCleeef 3rd, wife Mona, Jonathan VanCleeef, and a sister, Valerie VanCleeef. She was predeceased by her parents, and her sister, Bonnie.

A memorial service for friends and family will be held Friday, May 11, 2012 at 11:00 AM at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 South Main Street, Elmer. The family will be available starting at 10:30 AM to greet anyone who wishes to stop by and pay their respects. Interment at Chestnut Grove Cemetery will immediately follow.
