“ I quickly connected with Santi as we had much in common, including a love of anything Italian, Connecticut (I had/have several projects there), ice hockey (Bruins & Flyers) and of course food & construction. Santi is "that" person one can never, ever forget after they enter your life. Thinking & hearing him when he called me always brought/brings a smile to my heart. Santi, you left us much too soon. I regret not having spoken with you recently. Thank you for being both a loyal colleague @ Urban & a friend to me (& all of us), & God Bless You.

“ Yo !

That is all you had to say, and everyone knew you were talking about Santi !

Santi worked on a few of my projects at Urban Engineers, and I always said that if I could, I would take a whole team of Santi's. He was a gem among gems, with a gentle soul and a caring approach to everyone he met.

His ability to eat hot peppers was sometimes unbelievable, and he would warm up his lunch in the sun in his car, and he was soon known as “The Dashboard Gourmet” by those who had the pleasure of knowing him.

The world needs more Santi's during these turbulent times !

Fly away my friend and keep the heavens laughing.

YO !!

“ Santi loved to walk on the job while he was inspecting. It was inspiring. His love for hot sauce and hot peppers was almost as much as for his family and the church. I enjoyed the verbal debates we had on many topics, especially the NJSAT. You will be missed. Yo...tell Bruce we said hi.
