So sorry for your loss. Sara and I spent many hours talking at her kitchen table. Such a good person! I remember her babysitting my daughter when she was little. I still have a craft she and my daughter made for me in my bathroom! I will think of her when I see it! She was also my seamstress! She hemmed many things for me! I will miss her! May she res in peace 🙏🙏🙏

“ Your mother is a never ending song in your heart sending you comfort, happiness and being. If sometimes you find it hard to sing the words, just hum the tune and she will be there with you. Our deepest sympathy to the family. She was a kind and beautiful lady.

“ So sorry to hear of Sara’s passing! My sympathies to the family , she was a sweetheart, we kept in touch with the girls from the sewing factory after it closed! We had lunch with the girls every so often. We talked on the phone and got caught up with each other. I will miss her, a very special lady. ❤️❤️❤️

“ When I was a young boy, I got a piece of metal stuck in my head Sara removed it and sewed it up. When my parents moved out of state, Sara gave me a home so I could finish school. When I was older, Sara babysat my kids. Sara opened her heart, her home and my mind to what life was all about. She was family and I will miss her. Jim Nelson
