

Savel N. Banger

January 9, 2019

Savel N. Banger, 58, of Pennsville passed away on January 9, 2019. Born in Rochester, Minnesota, Savel was the daughter of John & Mary (Schloer) Isaacson. She met her husband Jerry while the two of them were students at West Virginia University. Jerry was from Pennsville and the two of them would eventually move back here. Savel began working at Franklin Savings & Loan and through her hard work and dedication would work her way up to becoming a bank manager.

Along with her husband Jerry whom survives her, she is also survived by her son, Jeremie and his fiancé Darby Smith, three grandchildren, Kylee, Tyler and Kaiden, siblings, Kent Isaacson and his children, Joshua and Michael, Karl & David Jennings and their daughter Kali, Denise & Richard Roberts and their children, Christine and Melissa and Sharon & Richard Pauley and their children, Ryan, Jessica and Erick as well as Kylee and Tyler's mother Ashlea Corson. In addition to her parents, a brother Mark Isaacson predeceased her as well.

Services will be private and interment will take place at Lawnside Cemetery in Woodstown.

Cemetery Details

Lawnside Cemetery

Rt. 40
Woodstown, NJ 08098

Tribute Wall

“ Condolences to the family. Will cherish many fond memories of working with her at FSB. May she rest in eternal peace.

---

Linda Gerace - January 11, 2019 at 09:24 PM

“ I'm totally in shock at this news. I'm so very sorry Jerry and Jeremy. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time which must be terribly difficult. I pray God wraps his arms around you and gives you the comfort you need. Rest in peace Savel

---

Terrie Cox - January 11, 2019 at 05:49 PM

“ Jerry I am so sorry for your loss. I know she will be greatly missed by you, your Mom and those grandchildren. My thoughts are with you. Love and prayers, Aunt Erma

---

Erma Sparks - January 11, 2019 at 01:46 PM