“ Just like every other Elmer kid who started kindergarten in 1965, I grew up with Scott. I have lots of memories of Scott, including the time we were both running for the prestigious office of 8th grade class president. I lost by one vote - my own, it turns out. He'd come to me to say we should vote for each other which, if couse, I did and he didn't! He was very politically savvy even back then. Makes me smile, even now. I send my sympathy and condolences to his siblings and family for this loss.

“ The Timberman family lived across the street from our family. Many afternoons were spent playing in the yards with all the kids from the neighborhood. Our parents were friends so we also were at each others' homes often. I will never forget the day I was standing in their living room next to the green leather couch. I went to put my hand on it and saw something move. It was Scott's iguana, just hanging out on the back of the couch. Scared me real good! I was careful for the longest time when I went in their house after that! Scott you will be missed. Rest in Peace.

“ Scott & I have been best friend's since kindergarten, when I was working he even would go with my family to Bordentown to go to lunch with our cousins. Once I wasn't working we enjoyed the rides up there and lunch. Even if Scott said there was something in my lunch which was gross. I will miss you until we meet again (Joe Wood) 💔
