

Shane Lucas Price

November 29, 2022

Shane Lucas Price, of Pittsgrove N.J. and formerly Hawaii. Passed away on November 29, 2022 while awaiting a liver transplant. Beloved son of Linda Price (nee Trefs) and Steven Price. Shane was loved deeply by his wife Sierra Jackson Price and his son Jay Eric Price, "The Lord Commander", who was Shane's heartbeat and he loved to the ends of the Earth. Brother of Steven Price (Katie) and Samantha Price (Scott Naylor). Dear uncle of Scott and Silas Naylor. Also survived by his many loving friends, including Ashley Stanton, Timmy Cahall and Becky Grablow, as well as his many childhood friends and friends in the Comedy World.

Shane played football for Schalick High School. He worked as a substitute teacher for Pittsgrove Township. Shane was a huge influence on the Hawaii comedy scene. His laugh was the most infectious and boisterous one in the world. He'd opened his heart to you in a minute if you needed. He was loyal, loving, caring and a huge asshole. He loved his son and wife fiercely and never stopped fighting to make wonderful things happen even to the end. He will be missed as much as he is loved.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a celebration of Shane's Life on Friday, December 9, 2022 from 3:00 PM to 6:00 PM at the Elmer Fire Hall, 110 Penn Street, Elmer, N.J. 08318.

"Through Humor, you can soften some of the worst blows that life delivers, and when you find laughter, no matter how painful your situation might be, you can survive it" Bing Crosby

“ Shane was such a great guy. He and Steve was at my house every Monday night during his grade and H.S. years(he went to school with my daughter) to watch Monday night Raw (wrestling). I seen Shane a few months ago and he gave me a big bear hug and said he will never forget those years . He was going to bring his son over to meet me. I will always remember him Fred and Teresa Brown
