

Sharon E. LaClaire

October 7, 1947 - March 6, 2025

Sharon Eileen Rose LaClaire, 77, was born to Rene (Sonny) DeBosscher the 2nd and Mary Bernadine McCusker on October 7th, 1947 in Camden, NJ. She grew up in Williamstown, NJ where she would stay until she married her true love, Howard LaClaire. Sharon did eventually end up going to Florida some time after her husband's passing, but found her way back home to Carneys Point, NJ. Sharon lived a full life with curiosity and connection. She had a passion for researching history and spirituality; always seeking a deeper connection and meaning to life and the past. She practiced Catholicism and had a deep interest in saints and angels; it was an important part of her spiritual journey. Her family and friends were important to her as well as her close friends. She was also a very dedicated Pokémon Go player, and found joy in the adventure, friendship and exploration the game provided.

Sharon is survived by her brother, Sonny DeBosscher the 3rd and his four children, Sonny DeBosscher the 4th, Monica DeBosscher, Jaclyn DeBosscher-Davies, and Sean DeBosscher . Her son Patrick Murphy and wife. Joseph LaClaire and Cheri LaClaire and their two children Michael LaClaire and Christina Hilbman. She was predeceased by her husband Howard LaClaire and brother Joseph Malinowski.

At this time, the family will not have a service, but if any friends or distant family would like to pay their respects she will be buried at Manahath

Cemetery in Glassboro, NJ, next to her husband. Sharon's favorite type of flower were carnations. The family asks additionally if you would like to pay respects another way, please donate to American Cancer Society (www.cancer.org) in her name; it was a cause she cared about deeply. Thank you.

Cemetery Details

Manahath Cemetery

Glassboro, NJ

Tribute Wall

“ Carol Molinari Monks lit a candle in memory of Sharon LaClaire

Carol Molinari Monks - April 11, 2025 at 09:39 AM

CK

“ Sharon was my forever friend. Thank you for the good times we shared, and wonderful memories you left me with. You will always be in my heart, and never forgotten. You are at peace now my friend.

Carol

Carol Kennedy - April 03, 2025 at 10:21 AM

BS

i cried

bev Santana - May 05, 2025 at 09:00 PM