Shirley especially loved her kids and her grandkids and the time that she spent with them, she even enjoyed raising children that didn't even belong to her. “ Shirley was the greatest happiest person I ever met. She was more like a mom, I never called her by her name, I think the first year of meeting her I never knew what her name was lol cause she was mom. I always loved the fact that every time I came to the house I got to see her and her animals, even though the devil dogs wanted to eat my feet lol. When I heard her name I thought of flowers, dogs, horses and any other thing that had to do with nature and animals. I am still in shock that she is gone, but I will say she may be gone but will never ever be forgotten. Mom, R.I.P I love and miss you. Keep watching over everyone. 💖
