“ Shirley and I spent many a fun night when I stayed at her house. We were around each other in our middle and late teen years. My funniest memory was when I was about 12 we wanted to spend the day together, We both lived in the Penn beach area but had no transportation. My dad had a push button Plymouth and I stole it and drove about 5 miles a hour to pick up Shirley. Never told my dad for about 20 years. I parked it just like it was and he never knew. That's just one of my great memories. I know Shirley had her health problems but hopefully now she is free to breathe the fresh air.

Shirley was special to my mom, her aunt Dorothy. She always cut my hair when I needed it. Phil, Nicole, and Tiffany were like my nieces and nephews when they were young. I would pick them up and take them places and to shop for clothes. She was like a second sister to me. I also loved big Phil and the entire Marino family. She will ne missed. She is in gods care now and forever. Uncle Bud
