“ To the family of Stanley Mihalecz my name is John Masino. I have fond memories of Stanley when I was a young man starting out in my working career at Armillines express lines. We work together loading trucks and also doing local deliveries in Philadelphia. There’s no need for me to tell you what a great guy he was, I really learned a lot from him and it helped make me the person I am today

“ The Jaffe family. So many memories, talking about farming, hunting, and the early days when my grandparents (Goldfein) had the farm on Garden Road. May he rest in peace, and his memory be a blessing to all.

“ You taught me two very important things. First a great work ethic as I was young and you gave me the opportunity to earn some money on the farm. I learned early from you how important it is to support yourself. And boy it felt great to have a little pocket money of my own!

Second how to drive. It was my first time behind the wheel, and I ran over everything in sight! But as I ran over bushel baskets and crops, you were kind and patient. When I apologized for causing all kinds of destruction, you laughed and assured me that all was ok. I was shocked when you put me behind the wheel of your truck for a second lesson!

You are a kind person and always made me feel like family. Everyone loved you. Until we meet again, thank you for the memories.
