

Stephen Andrew Wandell

November 10, 2017

Steve Wandell, 52, of Pittsgrove Township passed away Friday, November 10, 2017 at home in the presence of loving family, after a short battle with Cancer.

Born March 2, 1965, in Camden NJ, he was the son of the late Edwin “Eddie” Wandell III of Pittsgrove and Martha Wandell – Lackey of Bryson City, NC.

Surviving are his mother, Martha Wandell – Lackey, 74, of Bryson City, NC, brother Darrell Fales, 43, of Friendswood, TX, sister Kimberly Pettit 42 of Lawton, OK, his daughter Jessica Wandell 31, Jessica’s spouse, Michael Howle 40, and his Grandson, Vaughn Howle 2, his “little buddy” all of Pittsgrove.

Preceding him in death was his father, Edwin “Eddie” Wandell of Pittsgrove, and his brother Charlie Wandell of Bryson City, NC.

Steve was a mechanic by trade, but is known by many as the “Jack of all trades.” There was not anything that he could not fix. Steve enjoyed working on vehicles, manufacturing things from scratch and anything he put his hands on was solid and guaranteed. Steve loved spending quality time with his grandson, Vaughn, which could be seen in his face or heard in his voice.

Steve was one of the kindest men, who would do anything to help anyone, in any situation, any where, any time, placing regard for himself last. Steve was a family man devoted to a loving family and who also enjoyed hunting and fishing.

The family is grateful for condolences, but declines donations and flowers. A private service will take place for family members, as that's how Steve wanted.
