

Tony J. Creta Sr.

April 9, 2013

A dedicated, faithful husband, loving father and grandfather, Tony J. Creta Sr., 54, of Elk Township passed away on April 9, 2013. Born in Caserta, Italy, Tony (Antonio) was the son of the late Giovanni & Anna Creta. Along with his wife, Heidi, they were the owners of H A Creta Inc. which is an underground utility construction company. He served his country by joining the National Guard and later on decided to get involved in the community by running for Township Committee in Elk Township. After getting elected, he would eventually serve as Deputy Mayor for one year. Furthermore, he was a member of Shekinah Lodge #246 of Free & Accepted Masons in Philadelphia, Shriners International and the Ancient Accepted Scottish Right. Finally, working hard and putting in long hours was not uncommon, so he always looked forward to spending time with the family, whether it was just hanging out, going out on the boat or going to an Eagles game.

He is survived by his wife, Heidi, children, Tony Jr. (Ashley) of Sicklerville, Michael (Amanda) of Newfield and Christopher (Patti) of Elk Township, his grandson, Jaxon and brother, Renato Creta (Donna) of Philadelphia.

Services will be held at the Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown, NJ 08098. A viewing will be held on Monday night, April 15, 2013 from 6 until 9 PM and again Tuesday morning, April 16th, starting at 10 AM. The service which will be held at the funeral home will begin at 11 AM. Interment will take place at Manahath Cemetery in Glassboro. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
