“ There are too many great memories to list. Tracey was one of those amazing people in this world that managed to touch more lives than we can imagine by her thoughtfulness, humor, and love for life. She went through many things and always held on to her faith and convictions. I will miss everything about her. Many prayers to all all the Griffin's and our extended family.

“ I am truly heartbroken to hear of Tracey's passing. She was always so sweet and had such a great positive attitude about life. I feel truly blessed to have grown up with her and Denise. My continued prayers and condolences go out to Mr & Mrs Griffin , Denise & Kenny and their family as well as the Manahl and Catts families. This one hurts bad but I take comfort that I know for a fact that Tracey is with the Lord in Heaven which is the ultimate goal in this life. She is enjoying a beautiful new eternal life with no hurt, no sickness. No anger and pettiness. No division, no hatred and no fear. She is happy and whole in the presence of the Lord. I know that she will be looking over us until we finally meet again. R.I. P. sweet Tracy. You will be greatly missed.
