“ When you departed this world, you left an empty space in my heart. So many memories shared through the years, so much to remind me of you. You made others around you laugh and sing. You were loved by many who knew you. May you rest in peace! I will miss you!

“ Aunt Vicki and her constant misplacement of addresses and phone numbers! Im not sure if anyone else experienced this. Everytime I would speak with her she had lost the piece of paper she wrote down my info on. She would always say "now hold on so I can get a piece of paper to write your stuff down, I dont know where I put the last one!" My mom had sent her address books, and rolodexes and yet she still insisted on using a scrap piece of paper.

Vickki, I will miss you! My heart aches for what you had to deal with over the years. So many memories we shared which started in first grade... You had a good heart, and a generous soul, many loved being around you. You made others laugh, even when you didn't feel good,may you rest in peace...love you! Karen
