

Victor Ramos

November 3, 2014

Victor Ramos, 72, of Woodstown passed away on November 3, 2014. Born in Puerto Rico, Mr. Ramos was the son of Julio & Trinidad Ramos. In 1964 he came to Salem County, NJ. Victor loved to tell stories from his early days in Woodstown working at the Woodstown Bakery. He retired from DuPont Chambers Works as a chemical operator after twenty years of service. Over the years, he enjoyed attending car shows, fishing, spending time gardening and travelling with his wife, Paulette and his sons. But what Victor will most be remembered for was his outgoing personality and his constant thoughtfulness and concern for others. His family and friends were most important to him, and he was always willing to help in any way he could.

His wife Paulette (nee: Cagle), son, Nick and his wife Lisa, his mother, Trinidad, six brothers and seven sisters survive him. His father Julio and his son Dereck predeceased him.

Services will be held this Friday, November 7, 2014 at the Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown, NJ 08098. The visitation will begin at 9:30 AM with the service following at 11 AM. Interment will take place at Lawnside Cemetery. “ Victor Ramos was a first class example of a man as evidenced by the high caliber of person his son, Nick is. Nick's lovely wife, Lisa is likewise an exemplary example of a human being of the first order. We had the opportunity and pleasure to meet Victor Ramos and his wife, Paulette on Nick's and Lisa's moving day into their new home and it seemed as though we had known them for years. He had a wonderful smile as he spoke enthusiastically about his family and his love for his traditional ethnic foods.

Paulette, Nick and Lisa will keep Victor's memory alive for all to admire.

Vaya con Dios, Victor.

Love,

Gus and Rita Cotey

“ Vic was a man whose heart was as big as anyone I've ever met. He had as many names as well to some he was Victor, Vic, Bix, Uncle Bix and to one was Victory. When our niece Shal was born he was thrilled! A little girl to doll up in ribbons and lace. NOT. She thought all the frilly dresses itched. I think he finally accepted it and began taking her for her a tomboy at heart who kept up with her Dereck. Shal was a picky eater and her most favorite meal of choice was Uncle Bix's rice & beans which he happily kept her supplied. He always was first to ask how you were and wanted to take care of your wants or needs. You never felt like no matter what you wanted was too much trouble for him. He loved to cater to company. Even as he became sicker he would always ask about you. I can remember a Christmas shortly after he and Paulette became a thing he called and asked me to meet him at a jewelry store to pick out "Sweeties" Christmas Present. A special ring caught his eye. I said "Vic is this going to be a Christmas engagement? He said "huh". I explained that when a girl gets a ring like that it means that you want to marry her. The jeweler agreed so Vic said not this soon. That Christmas Paulette got a star sapphire surrounded by diamonds. A beauty it was but just a few months later victor returned to that store and made the purchase of the ring he looked at merely weeks before so it became a Valentine's engagement and from that time on I only heard Vic use her given name maybe 5 times. She became "Sweetie". The years since then he called her Sweetie, Pooks or Mommy. Family to him meant everything. A proud Poppa when Dereck was born and just as happy to welcome Nick a couple of years later. He and Paulette did a good job raising their boys. Much of Victors caring about others feeling were engraved in his sons. Vic went through a lot a medical issues but would only talk about his self once he found out that you were ok. Bix was a worker who hardly ever relaxed. He was always into something. cooking cleaning gardening and made the best Bar b qued ribs! The world lost a great one but I can only imagine the reunion oh him and his first born, Dereck, his Fatherinlaw who called him Victory and good Ole Beatty among the others that went before him. I can imagine Vic being the host of a great party he would throw for his loved one there. Someday he'll throw a party to welcome us but until then we have to remember him miss him and do what he would have wanted to do, live and enjoy life and each other. Love you Bix. A big hole has been made but we will have to fill it now with each other and memories of you. Till we meet again

“ I remember visiting his house by the DOD when I was a teenager. He treated me like family, no matter what. He & Paulette had my baby shower at that house & they absolutely loved Ravyn from day 1! He will truly be missed. He was a great loving man! RIP?

“ Paulette, Its been so long but I still remember Victor from the 1970's when my mom and I worked with you at Salem Hospital-2nd South! I am sorry for your loss. You are in my prayers and I know my mom (Marguerite Schaefer) would express the same sentiments were she here. Becky Schaefer Dorrell
