

Vincent Zoppina

June 8, 2011

Vince, age 83, of Carneys Point went to be with his Lord, Wednesday, June 8. He leaves behind his beloved wife, Evelyn, of nearly 61 years; children, David Zoppina and his wife, Diane; Nancy Strickland and her husband, Gary; Evelyn Wilcox and her husband, Ted; Lucille Crist and her husband, Richard; sister, Virginia Terry; brother, Russell; 15 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren and 2 on the way. Predeceased by son, Gary Frank and brother, Lou DeZopttis.

Known as, Steamer, an instrument mechanic with the DuPont Company for 38 years, Vince retired in 1985. A graduate of Woodstown High, he and his wife, Evelyn, never missed a reunion. Vince served in the US Army for 3 years spending some of his service time in Germany.

Vince loved to hunt, track, and fish. His garden gave him great satisfaction; it yielded an abundance of fruits and vegetables, which he shared with everybody. He was an enthusiastic traveler and adventurer. He and his wife, Evelyn, journeyed throughout the world. His motto, as well as his favorite song, was "Far Away Places to Far Away Lands."
