“ Aunt Gina used to watch my brother Ryan and I every day after school when we were too young to stay home alone. There were lots of interesting things in the yard when she had her house in Penns Grove. We had fun playing with Patrick's toys most notably the Star Wars men. She was always kind to us. Sorry we ruined your sand art.

“ Dear Uncle Joe, Deborah, Chuck, Patrick, Salvy, Faye and David:

I am so sorry to hear of Aunt Gina's passing. She certainly was a loving and caring person. I don't think I ever heard her speak an unkind or cross word. It was always a treat to watch Uncle Joe and Aunt Gina dance in their matching ensembles. We will keep you all in our prayers and save a special place in our hearts for Gina's kindness.
