

Wanda "Maggie" Hogate

November 6, 2013

Wanda "Maggie" Hogate of Elmer passed away on November 6, 2013. Born in Mannington, Wanda led a carefree life under her own terms. A motorcycle enthusiast, she loved her Harleys and the beach but most of all she loved her children and grandchildren. Like most grandmothers, she always felt her time was way to short with them.

She is survived by her children, TJ MacFarland and his wife Madeleine and Tammie MacFarland and her husband Greg Furdyna, grandchildren, Sabrina Furdyna 20, Amber 20, Morgan 18, Zachery 17, and Jesse Lee MacFarland 9, as well as many more family members and friends.

A Time to gather and celebrate her life along with her family will be held on Friday night, November 15, 2013 at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer NJ 08318. Starting at 6:30 PM the family will be available to anyone who wishes to stop by and pay their respects. The service will follow at 7:30 PM. Interment is private. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ Mommy I have so many great memories w u. I am a very lucky young lady to have had u in my life. U were always there for me no matter what U were the person I looked up to the most. U have been a fighter your whole life. Now its time for u to rest in heaven u have worries or stress in ur life. I know I have a wonderful angel looking over ur family. U were the best mommy in the world. I just wish God didn't take u away from me do early in life. I wish I had more time more years more laughs beach days or even just days Chill in. Mommy I will never forget how much u taught me n how to b a strong young lady. What doesn't kill u makes u stronger. Always in my heart. Love cinderella...

“ My Girlfriend So sad to have lost you so soon. Knew we'd be friends from the moment we met. JERSEY GIRLS at heart. I'll think of you on every ride I do wishing you were with me. We did have a lot of fun on the beach or on the bikes. R.I.P. Maggie. You made it home safe.
