

William Clark

June 18, 2025

William Clark, 83, of Pennsville, passed away on June 18, 2025. William was born in Wilmington, DE to Edward A. W. and Annie Clark.

William began his professional life in banking; he spent many years as a banker before following his heart into education. He became a cherished teacher at Salem Middle School, where he dedicated himself to shaping young minds with compassion, patience, and a genuine love for teaching.

As a lifelong lover of music, William performed widely as the county tenor and was especially admired in church choirs, where his rich voice became a familiar and uplifting presence. His talent, humility, and deep faith made him a beloved figure in the local music scene.

William's life was defined by service, passion, and generosity. He was a man who gave fully — to his students, his community, and to every note he sang.

William is survived by his loving wife Connie; children Brian (Bonnie), Caren (Josh Klem), and Heather Clark; grandson Daniel; brother Edward Clark, and several nieces and nephews. Along with his parents, William was predeceased by his sister Sylvia Forbes and niece Robin Reaume.

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, June 25, 2025 at the First Baptist Church of Pedricktown, 89 W. Mill Street, Pedricktown, NJ 08067. The visitation will begin at 2 p.m. with services at 4 p.m and a reception to follow.

In lieu of flowers the family has asked for donations to the First Baptist Church of Pedricktown or the musical organization of your choice.
