

William Vollie Williams Sr.

April 12, 2020

William Vollie Williams Sr., 71, died Sunday, April 12th, 2020 in his home in Woodstown, surrounded by his loved ones, following complications of pneumonia.

William is predeceased by his sisters, Patrica Aloï and Barbara Gappa, as well as his brother Frank Williams. He is survived by his sisters; Brenda Greene, Peggy Parish and husband Tom, Valarie Ambruster and husband Scott, Natalie Bevis and husband Kevin, brothers; George Williams, Richard Williams and wife Barbara, Robert Williams; his first wife Louise Williams; his children, William Williams Jr. and wife Elizabeth, Mary Huckaby and husband Joe, and Autumn Shawdah; his 6 grandchildren, William III and Madison Williams, Ian, Brian, Brianna, and Jillian Huckaby; and his 2 great grandchildren, Greyson Williams, and Liam Huckaby.

Born and raised in South Jersey, Son of Vollie and Margaret Williams, William went to Bridgeton High School, and later joined the Navy where he traveled alongside his cousin and good friend Wayne Williams.

After serving in the Navy, William worked in construction with his father. Until he became a security guard at the Salem Nuclear Plant for 20 years.

William had a strong love for his family, and enjoyed his time spent with them. He enjoyed listening to country music, and spending time with friends.

A graveside service, as well as a Celebration of Life Memorial will be held for William at a later date.

Tribute Wall

JA

“ Rest In Peace Uncle Bill!! Give my dad a hug for me up there 🙏 We will all miss you down here!

---

Janet - April 15, 2020 at 07:31 PM