

Yolanda Camelli Fiore

August 6, 2013

The Heavens opened their doors for the arrival of one of their angels on earth. Yolanda Camelli Fiore, born on May 4, 1914, joined her husband Dominick and parents John and Rose Camelli at the home of their Savior. Quietly and at peace with members of her family on, August 6, 2013 Yolanda left her place here on earth.

Born in New Castle, Delaware where she was raised with her parents and siblings she moved to Penns Grove with her husband in April 1937. This was her home until 97 when she moved to California with her son and wife to be closer to her all her children and families. Her days in Penns Grove were filled with the activities of her children and the needs of the church and community. Her love of her church, St. James, became a very large part of her life. Serving as an officer for various clubs in the school and church during the time her children were in school carried on long after their departure from Penns Grove and well into years that would have encompassed grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her time and energy was endless and her advice and knowledge was utilized until her moving to California. But she was only a phone call away when asked to help solve any situation involving her church and community.

Yolanda attended St. Peters school and church in New Castle, Delaware. Over the years she was recognized and received numerous awards and accolades for her charitable and humanitarian deeds. Her hobbies of knitting and crocheting not only brought her pleasure but at the age of 90 she was still receiving Blue Ribbons for the beauty of her work. Her love of cooking brought raves from those who had the pleasure of enjoying her epicurean delights.

Yolanda is survived by her three children and spouses, Donald and Tori Fiore, Theresa Fiore and Don Bragg and Jerry and Liz Fiore. She was the proud grandmother to 10 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. She is survived by her sister Vera Camelli Arnold of Wilmington, Delaware and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be at St. Gabriel the Arch Angel R.C. Church, 369 Georgetown Road, Carneys, Point, NJ, 08069, from 10 am to 11 am and Mass at 11 am. The family requests in lieu of flowers to make a donation in her name to Hospice Programs in New Jersey and California.
